

Speaker 's	Europe Conference 2018
Mr. Dr. Tamas Fabiny	is a Lutheran bishop of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in Hungary and since 2018, the Bishop of the Church. He is also one of the 7 Deputies of the Lutheran World Council.
Mr. Dr. Mathias Hartmann	is Rector and CEO of Diakonie Neuendettelsau since 2015. He studied Theology in Erlangen-Nürnberg. In 2013 he made his PGD Diaconal Science at Wuppertal/ Bethel.
Mr. Miklos Soltesz	is a Hungarian plant engineer and politician, who served as Secretary of State for Social and Family Affairs in the Second Orbán Government between 2010 and 2014. He is the current Secretary of State for Churches, Minorities and Civil Affairs since 2014 in the Third Orbán Government. He is also Member of Parliament (MP) since 2002, representing the Christian Democratic People's Party (KDNP).
Mrs. Heather Roy	She has been Secretary General of Eurodiaconia since 2008. Originally from Scotland, UK, she has worked in homelessness, youth work and international leadership before focusing on social justice and social services with Eurodiaconia. She has also been President of Social Platform, representing 45

	major EU social networks and is a Board Member of Social Services Europe. Heather is also a lay minister with the Anglican Church in Belgium.'
Mr. Martin Kastler	is a German politician of the CSU and was a member of the European Parliament until 2014. After leaving the European Parliament, he is representative and regional director of the Central European project of the Hanns Seidel Foundation, based in Prague, responsible for the Foundation's activities in the Czech Republic, Slovakia and Hungary.
Mr. Michael Stuber	Michael Stuber is a graduate industrial engineer (University of Karlsruhe) and has been involved in European projects in the areas of qualification and employment since 1989. After four years as a divisional manager or partner for two leading consulting companies in human resources and organizational development and volunteering for diversity, in 1997 he founded his Diversity Consultancy. His clients include 25% of the Best Practice Compendium of the European Commission and three of the four initiators of the Diversity Charter.

Mrs. Prof. Krisztina Szegedi	Dr. Krisztina Szegedi is a graduate in business administration, with a PhD in leadership and organizational sciences. Her research topic was corporate ethics. She teaches Responsible and Sustainable Business, Responsible Leadership, Business Strategy and Administration of the Budapest University of Economics, Hungary. She is the Independent Chairperson of the Ethics Council of the MOL Group, Hungary's largest company.
Mr. Frank Merkel	is Head Head of Specialized Services for Integration and Migration at the Caritas and Joint Coordination (together with a colleague of Diakonie Dortmund) of the Ecumenical Contact Point for EU Immigrants "Welcome to Europe" in Dortmund, Germany Establishment of a Dortmund-wide network on the subject of EU immigration, Numerous lectures in Dortmund, Germany and Europe on the topic of EU immigration
Mrs. Helle Cristiansen	ordained pastor in the Evangelical Lutheran Church in Denmark since 1985 and from 2007 full time working in the diaconal work of Kirkens Korshær/DanChurchSocial, cf www.danchurchsocial.dk Director since 2011. Kirkens Korshær is 9000 volunteers and 450 employed and works with poor and deprived people all over

	Denmark.
Mr. Géza Laborczi	pastor of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in Hungary and the Head of Institution of "Oltalom Szeretetszolgálat" in Nyíregyháza (public kitchen, homeless care center & temporary shelter for families). He is also member of the National Presbytery, Diaconia Committee and the Synod. Mr Laborczi has been the Chairman of the Christian Roma College Network for Students since 2015.
Mrs. Anna Weiß	is actually the coordinator of the Senior Network City West in Nuremberg and head of the project "WIND" (European Social Found) with the Diakonie Neuendettelsau and Caritas Nuremberg	